

We protect our skin and hair from environmental aggressors. But what about our eyelashes? Good thing there's Foltène's super lash treatment booster

OUR EYES SPEAK VOLUMES; but very often, we don't pay enough attention to them. Not only are our eyelashes exposed to environmental stressors such as sunlight and air pollution, but we tend to overload them with mascara, eyelash perming sessions and even eyelash extensions – unknowingly weakening and damaging them in the end.

lash extraordinaire

Foltène Pharma helps you regain beautiful eyelashes with its Eyelash and Eyebrow Treatment, $58. This nifty beauty tool strengthens and repairs your eyebrows and eyelashes, and helps stimulate lash growth too.

With a unique ingredient that is also used in Foltène's hair loss treatment products, this exclusive formula contains Tricalgoxyl – a patented mixture of polymers extracted from brown algae off the Isle of Ouessant, France – and a conditioning and decongestant botanical agent to moisturise and soften lashes and eyebrows.

Best of all, this Treatment has been dermatologically tested to be safe even on sensitive eyes and skin. No wonder this product is always sold-out at the stores, as users have reported no side effects with visible lash growth in less than a week!

one wand, many uses

Like any skincare product, use the Foltène Eyelash and Eyebrow Treatment at night before going to bed, as nutrients are better absorbed and our cells heal themselves much faster at night.

It also works great as a primer before you layer on mascara. Better yet, keep it in your beauty pouch and whip it out any time of the day to keep your eyelashes and eyebrows hydrated and protected.
